PREFACE

On the 22nd of March, 1966, at Fishpool, near Newstead Abbey in Nottinghamshire, there was discovered the largest and most important hoard of Gold Coins ever found in the British Isles.

Altogether, 1,237 gold coins have been recovered and the find was declared to be Treasure Trove in December 1966. Only two of the six finders fulfilled the conditions required by the law in relation to Treasure Trove, a Mr. Berhard Beeton and a small boy, Master D. Welham. Mr. Beeton found 100 coins, of which 15 have subsequently been purchased by museums, and the remaining 85 coins were returned to him. Master Welham found four coins, which were returned to him and these have subsequently been privately sold.

The 85 coins belonging to Mr. Beeton are now being offered for sale. The remaining coins in the Hoard are being retained by the British Museum, who will be publishing in due course a monograph of the entire Hoard.

In view of the great importance of the Hoard, it is felt that readers of this Catalogue may like to have some details, which are given below. The English coins are Nobles, Half-Nobles and Quarter-Nobles.

1. Edward III. 27 coins. 9 of Pre-Treaty type, 15 of the Treaty period, and 3 of the Post-Treaty series.
2. Richard II. 12 coins. 11 Nobles and 1 Half-Noble muled with an obverse of Edward III.
3. Henry IV. 38 coins. 1 Heavy Coinage Noble, 36 Light Coinage Nobles and 1 Half-Noble.
4. Henry V. 266 coins. 258 Nobles (including three of the rare type A and 166 of the commonest type C), 7 Half-Nobles and 1 Quarter-Noble.
5. Henry VI. 606 coins. This group includes 482 of the Annulet Coinage Nobles. New coins include a leaf-mascle Half-Noble and a cross-pellet Noble.
6. Edward IV. 63 coins. The most remarkable fact about the Hoard is the presence of these 63 coins, consisting of 62 Nobles and one Quarter-Noble, the last being unknown. They are of the Heavy Coinage of 1461-64. Previously, only four specimens of the Heavy Coinage Nobles were known, of which three are of the "10 o'clock legend" type and one of the later type with legend starting at 3 o'clock. Of the 62 Nobles in the Hoard, 32 are of type 1 and 30 of type 2. Several new varieties of these coins can now be recorded.

In addition to the English coins, the following coins were found in the Hoard: —

33 Anglo-Gallic Salutes of Henry VI;
1 Demy and 12 Lions of James II of Scotland;
11 Ecus of Charles VII of France;

166 coins of the Dukes of Burgundy, chiefly Riders and Lions of Philip the Good;
2 forgeries of Henry IV.

COIN CATALOGUES

On the average we issue twelve Coin Catalogues each year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections.

CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

PRE-SALE CATALOGUES, frequently illustrated, are normally posted to subscribers about three weeks prior to the date of Sale.

PRICED CATALOGUES (not illustrated) are issued after each Sale with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each Lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values. The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

The Priced Catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about three weeks after the date of Sale.

Subscription Rates

(commencing from 1st January)

Pre-Sale Coin Catalogues ..... 10s. 0d. per annum

Priced „ „ ..... 30s. 0d. „ „

(Pro rata reductions for new subscribers commencing after 1st January)

All subscriptions expire on 31st December, and renewal reminders are issued. Catalogues of past Sales cannot be supplied.

AIR MAIL

To allow subscribers resident outside Europe time to submit postal bids, Pre-Sale Catalogues will, if desired, be sent by Air Mail. Air Mail postage is not, however, included in the Subscription Rate and must be borne by the subscriber. In such cases an additional £1 should be sent as a deposit and we will advise when this is exhausted.
